

Tiger Paws Karate

Fall 2010 Session

- Ages: 3-6 years
- Cost: $160 for ten weeks.
- Uniform: One time $25 uniform fee payable with registration form.

Tiger Paws is a program specifically designed for young children not quite ready for regular Karate. This course focuses on self-discipline, self-confidence and self-control with exercises that are both fun and challenging. Classes are taught by a certified instructor from Yi's Karate Swedesboro, which has been providing karate instruction since 1995.

Children participating in the Tiger Paws courses wear a uniform. Uniforms will be distributed on the first day of class and cost $25 is payable with the registration form.

For 3-6 years:

- Mondays, 3:15pm-4:00pm
- Thursdays, 4:00pm-4:45pm

Tiger Paws Karate is much more than "kick" and "chops." Tiger Paws is designed to teach young children discipline, patience, coordination and flexibility. The Play & Learn Center at Holding Hands offers Tiger Paws for young children at all levels. Class activities include lessons in Korean, flexibility exercises and instruction in specific karate moves. Participants wear karate uniforms. Classes meet once a week for 45 minutes over a ten week semester. The final class includes a Belt Ceremony where students demonstrate the skills they have learned to move up to the next belt level.
